

Knowledge Organiser- On the Farm

D.T

|             |                                                                           |
|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Ingredients | Parts of a mixture, like flour.                                           |
| Seasons     | Parts of the year marked by different weather, producing different foods. |
| Local       | The area around us.                                                       |
| Baking      | The process of cooking in an oven.                                        |

Knowledge Organiser- On the Farm Science

|           |                                                                   |
|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Plant     | A living thing that grows in the earth.                           |
| Roots     | Part of a plant that grows underground.                           |
| Stem      | A part of a plants structure that holds the leaves and flowers.   |
| Fungus    | A living thing that is neither a plant or animal, like mushrooms. |
| Deciduous | A tree that loses its leaves in the Autumn.                       |
| Evergreen | A tree that doesn't lose its leaves in the Autumn.                |

Knowledge Organiser- On the Farm Art

|                        |                                                                  |
|------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Andy Goldsworthy       | An English sculptor, photographer and environmentalist.          |
| Explore                | To understand by looking carefully.                              |
| Composition            | How different things can be rearranged to make different images. |
| Observational drawings | Drawing what you can see.                                        |

Knowledge Organiser- On the Farm Geography

|                   |                                                              |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|
| Location          | The place or position of something.                          |
| Human features    | Things made by people, like buildings and roads.             |
| Physical features | Thing that occur naturally, like mountains, seas and rivers. |
| Map               | A drawing that helps us to know where things are located.    |
| Symbol            | An image to show important landmarks and places.             |

