

Literacy, Communication and Language

- New vocabulary developed through our topic.
- Non-Fiction books linked to topic.
- Story books- Zog, Zog and the Flying Doctors and The Kiss that Missed.
- Daily story times
- Daily phonics and writing.
- Show and tell with adults modelling and supporting children to practise connecting their thoughts and ideas using relevant connectives.
- Writing in the role play area.
- Demonstrating they understand what they have been read by retelling the story.
- Anticipating and predicting what will happen next in the story.
- Showcasing clay sculptures in a gallery, discussing their artistic process.

Personal, Social and Emotional

- Continued work on Zones of Regulation.
- Learning about our bodies and how we have changed since being a baby..
- Discussing the class rules and sharing them with the new reception children during transition.
- Buddying with new reception children.
- Perseverance in the face of challenges.

Understanding the World

- Celebrating different beliefs and special occasions.
- Exploring their natural and immediate environment through forest school.
- Role playing in the dragon school, trying to teach our friends new skills.
- Understand that people would have lived very differently in the reign of Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth I.
- Understand that the world around us is made up of different objects, which are made of different materials.

Knights and Castles EYFS Overview Summer 2

Christian Value of the Term: Thankfulness

Knowledge Organiser - Knights and Castles Art

Sculpture	A 3D artwork made of different materials.
Clay	Thick soil that is soft when wet, and hard when dry or baked.
Three-Dimensional	An object that has 3 dimensions.
Secondary colours	The result of mixing primary colours.

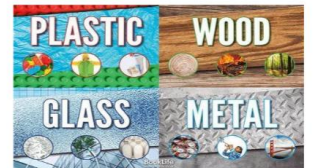

Expressive Arts and Design

- Designing and creating a clay coat of arms.
- Mixing primary colours to achieve the secondary colours they want.
- Exploring moving mechanisms to make a drawbridge.
- Role playing in our dragon school.
- Showcase art in mini gallery, discussing artistic process.

Knowledge Organiser- Knights and Castles Science

Materials	Something used to make an object.
Properties	Characteristics of a material.
Flexible	A material that can bend.
Transparent	A material that is see-through.
Recycled	Converting waste materials into a new material.

Physical Development

- Using cutlery while eating.
- Using a range of paintbrushes and media to create artwork inspired by our topic, using correct grip.
- Use pens, pencils, chalk and crayons using correct grip and increasing control and independence to add detail to artwork.
- Use of clay and different joining techniques.
- Continue to develop handwriting skills and letter formation.
- Balance bikes.
- Explore new athletics skills, such as running, throwing and jumping.

